An impressive steel and sandstone structure, rising between two world-class artificial playing fields, ViewPoint is one element of the $24 million state-of-the-art UQ Synthetic Fields Precinct. With outstanding industrial character and visual appeal, it is the perfect one-of-a-kind backdrop for your next conference, meeting or event.

Bring the outdoors in with extensive bi-fold windows running along two of the three walls within the space, injecting a burst of fresh air to your function. It also features polished concrete floors with a striking spotted gum bench, framing the space and sweeping views.
